“Your dreams are like a telescope that can give a better view of something that is normally out of reach: your spiritual side. That includes how you act, feel, reflect, think, react, and even love.”

—Sri Harold Klemp,
The Art of Spiritual Dreaming, p. 3

The Dream Dictionary

“Creating a dream dictionary can help you become familiar with your own dream symbols. Whether a baseball diamond, a bear, an eagle, or anything else, you’ll know immediately what a particular symbol means to you....

“As you create your own dream dictionary of symbols, record the date next to the meaning of each symbol. This way you can keep track as the meaning changes. As you unfold, your dream symbols are going to take on different meanings, a fact not generally known by people who study dreams.”

—Sri Harold Klemp,
The Art of Spiritual Dreaming, p. 167

How did my dream make me feel?

What did I do in my dream?

Glue your dream card here.

What symbols were in my dream?
What do they mean to me?

What could the Dream Master be teaching me in this dream?

How did the dream relate to my life?

“Dreams touch every level of our life. They may let us glimpse the future, or give suggestions for healing, or share insights into our relationships. Above all, they can and will steer us more directly toward God.”
