

Yaubl Sacabi heads the Temple of Golden Wisdom in the spiritual city of Agam Des, in the Hindu Kush Mountains of central Asia. He is guardian of the section of the Shariyat-Ki-SUGMAD located there.

Long ago, he served as the MAHANTA, the Living ECK Master among the ancient Greeks. He is a strong and sturdy individual of average height, with a bald head and a broad, kind face.

To meet him, you are welcome to try the following spiritual exercise.

* * *

Close your eyes and sing HU, the love song to God, several times.

Imagine you are walking along a mountain path. The sky above is a sparkling blue, and the sun warms the air all around you.

Yaubl Sacabi is waiting for you on the path. Go with him. Ask him any question you might have, and listen to his answers. Then let him lead you, and see what you find.

Take your time. All important things take time and effort to achieve.

Meet Towart Managi

Would you like to meet Towart Managi?

There are many ECK Masters of every race. The most well-known black ECK Master spoken of in the ECK writings is Towart Managi. He was the MAHANTA, the Living ECK Master in Abyssinia, an ancient African kingdom in what is now Ethiopia. Today, he is the ECK Master in charge of the Shariyat-Ki-SUGMAD on the Mental Plane. He has closely cropped hair and a short white beard.

* * *

To meet this ancient ECK Master, sit in a quiet place, close your eyes, and gently focus your full attention on your Spiritual Eye. It is behind and between your eyebrows.

Now, silently chant the word Aum. It is the key to the Mental Plane. You may hear the sound of running water, and the ECK Master Towart Managi will appear. Ask him to take you to the Shariyat-Ki-SUGMAD on the Mental Plane.

The Shariyat might appear to you as a book, a field of glowing white light, or even as heavenly music or magnificent images of some kind. However it looks, it has a special message for you.

Meet Kata Daki

The ECK Master Kata Daki is one of the better-known female ECK Masters. Though her true age is beyond human understanding, she appears to be around thirty years old. She is of average height and has light-brown or honey-blond hair. With her profound kindness, wisdom, and compassion, Kata Daki serves all states of consciousness, from the highest to the lowest, and inspires in others a deep longing for God. If you'd like, she can help you learn the secret of love.

To meet her, you can try this spiritual exercise.

* * *

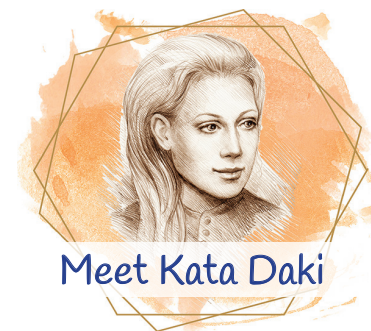

First, open your heart, and read these words from The Shariyat-Ki-SUGMAD, Book One: "Love does not come to those who seek it, but to those who give love."

Then shut your eyes, and silently sing the word seva (see-VAH). It is a spiritual word that means a service of love.

Imagine Kata Daki walking toward you. You have an appointment with each other. As she approaches, ask her to show you how to give love to others in ways you may not have thought of before. She smiles at you and shares a great secret about love. She may remind you of a time you received divine love when you were in need. Then she asks you how you would like to return that gift of love to others.

Share your answer with her, and enjoy speaking with her about any other question in your heart.

Meet Paul Twitchell

Would you like to meet Paul Twitchell, the ECK Master who reintroduced the teachings of ECKANKAR in modern times? Paul is of medium height, with a round face and piercing blue eyes. He studied with the great ECK Master Rebazar Tarzs, who helped prepare him to become the MAHANTA, the Living ECK Master in 1965. His spiritual name is Peddar Zaskq.

Here is a spiritual exercise to try if you would like to meet him.

* * *

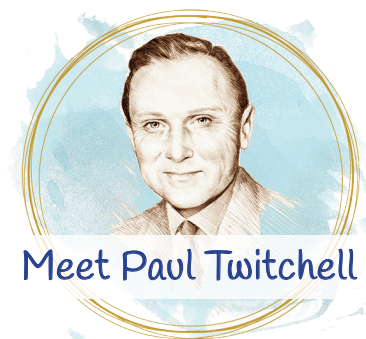

Imagine a large, beautiful, quiet library with tall shelves. Notice how the rows of books glow with soft light.

Now sing HU, and fill yourself with love.

Tiptoe among the books until you find Peddar Zaskq working away at a desk, bathed in a golden light. His sparkling blue eyes will greet you as he looks up. Ask him any spiritual question you would like the answer to, and let him guide you to the jewels of wisdom around you.

Where do you find your answer?
